Harbor Area Hits 96 Per Cent Mark in Community Chest Drive

Harbor Area volunteers racked up 96 per cent of their Community Chest goal as the overall Los Angeles Area Community Chest went over the top for the first time in eight years. In all, $11,509,580 was raised for support of 155 United Way services, or 100 per cent of goal.

Final 1962 reports were made last Thursday at a victory luncheon at the Statler-Hilton, attended by more than 600 volunteers.

Fred Mill, Harbor Area chairman, reported the following community standings by percentage of goal: Harbor City-Lomita, 101 per cent; Wilmington, 100 per cent; Palos Verdes, 96 per cent; Gardena, 92.5 per cent; Rolling Hills, 87 per cent; San Pedro, 86 per cent; and Torrance, 83 per cent.

Hundreds of subscriptions are still in the hands of volunteers and donors in the Harbor Area, according to Mill and persons are urged to send these to Community Chest 200 E. Anaheim, Wilmington, or call TE 5-7126 to have them picked up.

MILL announced the following Harbor Area leaders in various campaign units:

City with highest percentage, Jimmy Visceglia Trophy—Walter Scheppmann, Harbor City-Lomita chairman.

City with best organization, Ira Kaye trophy—Harbor City-Lomita.

Advance Gifts, Frode Kilstofte trophy — Dr. Maurice Okum, San Pedro.

Residential Unit Chairman, Al Robinson trophy — Mrs. Bonnie Trambley, North Wilmington.

Commerce and Industry Division chairman, Spinak trophy — Glenn Younkin, Bank of America, Gardena.

Business, Retail Clerks Local 905 trophy—Bill Soady, Harbor City-Lomita.

"THESE VOLUNTEERS and hundreds of others deserve the credit for our accomplishment in the Harbor Area," Mill said.

"They, together with generous residents and businesses who showed how much they cared, helped swell the overall Chest total."

Awards for volunteers, firms, employ groups will be given at the annual Harbor Area Community Chest meeting to be held in the spring of 1963, Mill added.

Holiday Show Presented by Junior High

The annual Christmas program at Stephen M. White Junior High School was presented Dec. 12 in the school auditorium.

The program consisted of Christmas selections by the orchestra under the direction of Robert Graham. Under the supervision of Richard Schraier the Senior Mixed Glee Club sang such Christmas favorites as "Silver Bells" and "Go Where I Send Thee."

The drama class presented the play, "Why the Chimes Ring" and a choral reading of "Ring Out Wild Bells" both directed by Miss Jane Hickman.

Jim Stafford, Patrick Blackburn, Orville Stanton, Steven Thompson, Steve York, William Jackson, Rosalind Mann, Linda Blake, Robin Birch, and Colleen Craven were featured in the play, "Why the Chimes Ring."
